Supporting Learning Through The Ages

Guest-of-Honour:

Mr Eugene Leong

Chief Executive Officer

Early Childhood Development Agency

Keynote Speaker: Doctor Amelia Roberts

Dr Roberts is a Senior Teaching Fellow at UCL Institute of Education and Deputy Director of UCL Centre for Inclusive Education, and is the Research Engagement and Impact Lead for the Psychology and Human Development Department. Dr Roberts has a passion for research, curriculum design, and capability development of educational practitioners.

Topics of discussion:

- Understand how Universal Design affects children and how this supports the concept of High Quality Teaching.
- Recognise the common challenges that some children face, what these challenges might indicate, and how educators and practitioners can gain a greater understanding of a child's needs
- Introduction to tools and resources to measure individual children's progress in emotional development and social skills
- Ways in which educators and practitioners can remove barriers to learning

The AWWA Inclusion Experts Series seeks to bring together professionals of diverse backgrounds within the Inclusive Education space. Through the sessions, professionals from mainstream, inclusive, integrated and special educational settings will have opportunities to gain insights, acquire new inclusion-related information and enhance their skillsets so that they can mindfully work towards practising better inclusion across various settings.
